

Free Printable Everyday Birds Note Card Set from Rebecca's Soap Delicatessen.

Many years ago I sold this handmade notecard set online from my original art collages. Now that I am no longer selling these stationery sets, I thought I'd share them with you! These images/cards are copyrighted by Rebecca D. Dillon of Rebecca's Soap Delicatessen. Please print them for your pleasure, but for personal use only.

About these cards: This set of four adorable notecards are reflective of the four seasons and feature birds hanging out on the laundry line in the summer sun, birds stealing kisses in autumn bare trees, birds bundling up for that winter snow, and birds scenting out new spring blooms. These delightful notecards are sure to steal anyone's heart!

To use these cards, simply print the card pages onto card stock then cut in half between the images and fold. The finished cards will measure 5 1/2" x 4 1/4" and fit inside standard invitation sized stationery envelopes.
